The Heart of a Woman May 16 2021 The Heart of a Woman offers the first-ever biography of Florence B. Price, a composer whose career spanned both the Harlem and Chicago Renaissances, and the first African American woman to gain national recognition for her works. Price's twenty-five years in Chicago formed the core of a working life that saw her create three hundred works in diverse genres, including symphonies and orchestral suites, art songs, vocal and choral music, and arrangements of spirituals. Through interviews and a wealth of material from public and private archives, Rae Linda Brown illuminates Price's major works while exploring the considerable depth of her achievement. Brown also traces the life of the extremely private individual from her childhood in Little Rock through her time at the New England Conservatory, her extensive teaching, and her struggles with racism, poverty, and professional jealousies. In addition, Brown provides musicians and scholars with dozens of musical examples.

Après Un Rêve for Voice and Piano (3 Keys in One --

High/Medium/Low Voice) Aug 19 2021 This edition, based on the one in The Art of French Song, presents Faure's arguably most famous song, prepared by the French music expert Roger Nichols, in an extremely practical publication: in three alternative keys for high, medium and low voices -- C minor (the original key), D minor and Bb minor. As documented in the preface, recordings made by singers who worked with Faure define a more ardent, urgent tempo and mood than we may be used to from later performances.
